

WOMAN WAS LEFT TO DIE.

Two Men Who Carried Her from Saloon to Street Arrested.

A woman is dying at St. Catherine's Hospital, Brooklyn, from a fractured skull, and two men who carried her from a saloon to the street have been arrested.

She was found unconscious after midnight at the intersection of Knickerbocker avenue and Stanhope street. Her attire indicates that she is a person in comfortable circumstances. She wore a purple shirt waist, a black silk skirt, black stockings and oxford ties. She is about thirty-five years old and quite stout.

George Puchs, of 178 Manhattan avenue, and Henry Kanes, of 13 Meseroe street, proprietors of a saloon at Knickerbocker avenue and Stanhope street, were locked up on charges of assault in the first degree. They are suspected of being responsible for the woman's injuries.

Puchs says that the woman came into the saloon at 5 o'clock yesterday, in company with two men. The trio drank until 7 o'clock, when one of the men left. The other followed him shortly. Going out to look for the woman, Puchs says he found her at the bottom of a cellar staircase bleeding from the nose. He placed a bundle of newspapers under her head and left her. He claims that her companions came in during the evening and asked after her. He told them to take her away, as she was drunk. They refused.

At midnight when he and Kanes were closing up they washed her face and lifted her out on the sidewalk. A policeman came up, and not liking their explanation of how the woman came by her injuries, locked them up. Detectives are looking for her companions.

TOOK ACID IN A HOTEL.

Suicide of Robert Shepard in Mills Hotel—Was Penniless.

A man who registered at Mills Hotel No. 1, at 160 Bleecker street, as Robert Shepard committed suicide this morning by drinking carbolic acid.

Occupants of an adjoining room heard a fall in his apartment and notified the night porter.

When the door was forced the man was discovered face downward on the floor with the empty bottle of acid beside him.

The police confiscated a memorandum book, which was the only article found in his clothing. He was absolutely penniless.

The man had never before registered at the hotel. Habitués of a saloon at Bleecker street and West Broadway identified him as a man who had been about the neighborhood for several months.

They said he had not registered under his right name and that when in liquor he had spoken of rich English relatives and of his adventures abroad in days of former prosperity.

JUMPED TO DEATH.

Nellie McConnell Leaped from a Third-Story Window and Was Killed.

Nellie McConnell, forty-eight years old, of 235 East Forty-seventh street, committed suicide this morning by jumping from the window of her bedroom on the third floor into the yard below. The woman was killed almost instantly.

GIRL SHOT IN FUN.

Boy Playmate with an Airgun Sent a Bullet Into Her Eye.

Seven-year-old Michael Sahyna shot Miss Rabetta, who is the same age, in the right eye with an airgun. The eyeball was removed and the girl is still suffering much, but her father refused to press a complaint against the boy in the Harlem Court today.

He said that the pair were playing "Americans and Philpines" in their home, 108 East One Hundred and Thirtieth street, last night and that the boy shot in fun. The lad was discharged.

GIRL TRIED SUICIDE ON CHURCH STEPS.

She Wrote Two Letters to Friends and Then Swallowed Morphine Powders.

This girl, who took poison, may be Regina Biberfeld.

A woman, apparently about twenty-six years old, was found lying unconscious on the steps of Temple Beth-El, Seventy-sixth street and Fifth avenue, late last night. She was taken to Presbyterian Hospital, where it was found that she had undoubtedly attempted to commit suicide by taking morphine.

On the step near where the woman lay was a small pasteboard box, such as contain powders. The box bore the label of "Goutz," druggist, Sixty-fifth street and Lexington avenue. The box still contained several of the powders. Two letters in German were also found. One was addressed to the Coroner and the other to Louis Kupfer, either 339 or 350 Lexington avenue. The figures were made so poorly that the police were unable to make them out.

A slip of paper found on the woman bore the name "Regina Biberfeld." The police believe this is the woman's name.

At the hospital it was said the woman's condition was not critical and it is expected that she will recover. A man named Louis Kupfer lives at 359 Lexington avenue, which is a boarding-house. He was not at home when looked for after the woman had attempted suicide. Nothing was known in the house of the woman.

SUICIDE ON STEAMSHIP.

Fireman Jumped Overboard from the Furness—One Death.

The Anchor line steamer Furness, Commander Hugh Young, arrived this morning from Glasgow and Moville with 211 saloon, 380 second cabin and 262 steerage passengers.

The Furness will be detained at Quarantine for a thorough inspection and examination of her passengers. There was one death and one suicide during the voyage. On Sept. 15, shortly after leaving the Clyde, Ferdinand Hall, a second cabin passenger, died of heart disease. His body was landed at Moville on the 15th.

On the 17th a fireman named James Glancy, a native of Glasgow, jumped overboard from the after deck and was lost.

RUPTURE

OUR TRUSS—A Necessity For Your Case.
No truss or treatment accomplishes so much in reducing the size of a rupture in so short a time as our patent truss. Thousands in New York can testify that after throwing away money in Elastic and Spring Trusses and worthless "methods," they found our truss the only help. Our automatic pad the only scientific restainer; no unnecessary elastic or heavy springs; entirely different in principle and application.

There Never Was Such Value as This!

Men's Fancy Stiff Bosom Shirts of Woven Madras, Detached Cuffs 69c
(regularly sold for $1.50), sale price

We indeed consider ourselves most fortunate in being able to secure these shirts, which actually retail at $1.50 each, for a price so low that we can consistently sell them to-morrow at 69c. They were made by the greatest shirt manufacturer in the United States. (We must withhold the name from publication, although it is plainly based on every shirt.) This brand is known from the Atlantic to the Pacific as a guarantee of superior quality. The shirts have the fit of a custom made shirt and the same finish. Exclusive haberdashers generally sell them. Each shirt has one pair of detached round corner cut cuffs, and the designs and combinations of colorings, stripes, etc., are most excellent. Remember they are made of 69c WOVEN madras. Sizes run from 13 1/4 upward. Our price to-morrow is, each

The goods cost regularly, at wholesale, $13.50 per dozen. There are but 250 dozen in this lot, and the reason for the firm making a deal so advantageous to us was the fact that the lots of each pattern were very small; not enough to keep on sample any longer. The shirts will probably be sold before the day is out—that's a hint.
